Miss Pauley . . . fielding the ball.

(Baseball) diamond is this girl's best friend

By BEELEE GOODWIN

It is said that a diamond is a girl's best friend, a pathway to the heart. Nothing could be truer in the case of nine-year-old Amanda Pauley.

Amanda's diamond is the baseball diamond.

For the first time, a girl will be participating in Little League baseball in Canyon this summer.

Amanda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Pauley of Canyon, is listed on the official roster of the Indians in the Pee Wee League.

Asked why she chose baseball over softball, in which there are girls' teams, Miss Pauley answered without hesitation, "it's funner."

Playing ball with boys won't be new to the young Indian. "I always have to play with boys at home," she said, referring to her brothers. "I'm good enough to play with those boys and I can throw harder," Miss Pauley emphatically stated.

Although confident, Miss Pauley did point out parts of her game that need work. "I'm not too good at catching and I can't hit the ball in the air much, mostly I hit grounders," she said. "I really can't hit as good as the boys," Miss Pauley humbly added.

During the first practice session, the only girl in the Little League organization in Canyon met her first test. While talking to an inquisitive reporter, an errant ball struck Miss Pauley between the eyes.

More tears were held back than were shed and soon the young baseball hopeful was out amongst the boys shagging baseballs, the test passed.

Miss Pauley experienced some teasing during the first team practice but she is convinced that she is "tougher than boys."

With a sound of reservation in her voice, Miss Pauley said "I'm afraid the boys will get mad at me if I make an out," but immediately stated, with a great deal of emphasis, "I'll hit 'em if they tease me!

"I'd like to play hind catcher but someone else is, so I guess I'll be playing shortstop," Miss Pauley said.

Miss Pauley and her 15 male teammates will have nearly a month to get their throwing, batting and catching in shape. The Pee Wee League schedule opens Tuesday, May 27.

Amanda is not the first girl to break the sex barrier in once all-male sports in Canyon.

Seven girls reported for flag football in Kids, Inc., last fall.

A change in the rules on Kids, Inc., football allowed the girls to join the boys on the field. However, no girls chose to participate in the tackle football of the older kids.

Airport needs to be studied

A fully operational municipally-owned airport could enhance Canyon's chances for economic development, a state Aeronautics Commission official said this week as he prepared to come to the area to meet with local representatives concerning airport needs.

Jim McCausland, aviation planner working on the Texas Airport System Plan, will meet with Canyon officials and officials from Armstrong, Carson, Hutchinson and Potter counties Tuesday in Amarillo to discuss area airport needs and funding available to meet those needs.

McCausland, a native of Amarillo, said staff members Tuesday will attempt to determine and refine airport needs in communities within those counties.

He said an initial portion of the presentation Tuesday will be devoted to showing representatives of the various communities the importance of an airport to their area, the kinds of airports available and the financial assistance available. The representatives will be asked their ideas on the kinds of airport developments needed to support their communities, he said.

Airports now in existence in the communities will be reviewed.

McCausland said he feels an operating airport is an asset to any community, particularly any community interested in economic development.

"Canyon is a rather special town with a lot going for it," he said, "but it would have more going for it if it had a nice little general aviation airport."

McCausland stressed the talks will center on general aviation

Now money needed on museum project

Plans have been completed and all that is needed now is money to begin construction of a two-level structure to bring together the two buildings of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum here.

Director James Hanson said $380,000 has been added to the appropriations request for the museum for the next biennium for construction of the structure, which would connect the main museum building with what has been the old West Texas State University library.

He said if the legislature approves the appropriation for the project, construction could begin Sept. 1 and would take about nine months to complete.

A glass and masonry structure has been designed by Hannon and Daniel of Amarillo for the connector.

Hanson said plans call for the structure to be above ground as well as at basement level.

If construction is authorized, he plans to develop a hall of agriculture for the basement area. The hall would have at least one exhibit on prehistorical agriculture, but the main exhibit would consist of a 1900-era steam tractor and threshing machine.

The ground floor of the connector would provide the main entrance to the museum and would be a non-exhibit area.

A large lighted and relieved map of the Texas Panhandle would be a key attraction in the structure. A curio shop, restrooms and

Tax collector attacks tax bill

Randall County's tax collector attacked Monday a bill now pending in the Texas Legislature which calls for centralizing tax office functions, charging the bill "would be taking local control and putting it at the state level."

Mrs. Audrey Bruse, tax assessor-collector for the county, outlined H.B. 1463, a bill with 84 cosponsors and riding a favorable committee report in the House, during commissioners court Monday.

Mrs. Bruse said county-level officials would lose control of the tax office if the legislation is passed and signed.

Under the bill, she said, a state director for property tax administration would be appointed by the Texas Comptroller and the director would identify methods of determining fair market value to insure uniformity of state-wide appraisals. He would also prescribe minimum training and experience standards for appraisers.

All appraisals would be made by a county appraisal office under the director's supervision. He would also approve the budget for the office.

A nine-member advisory council would be appointed to make recommendations to the director of the property appraisal division.

The county tax assessor-collector would be chief administrative officer for the office and the operations of the office would be financed by contributions from each taxing unit in the county.

Under the legislation, the appraisal office would furnish each taxpayer notice of the value placed on his property before June 1, 1978 and each year thereafter, if his property value is increased.

A board of appraisal review would be established in each county and it would sit as a board of equalization with county commissioners sitting as a board of equalization for county taxes only.

Mrs. Bruse told commissioners she has written letters to State Rep. Bob Simpson and State Sen. Max Sherman listing her objections to the bill.

County Judge Woody Pond suggested commissioners also write letters of objection to the bill and urged Mrs. Bruse to write to Speaker of the House Bill Clayton.

In other business Monday, Mrs. Bruse said suits will be filed in May against Randall County delinquent taxpayers. She reviewed the delinquent tax roll as of July 1, 1974.

Delinquent taxes totalled $15,214 as of Monday, she said.

Randall County Asst. Dist. Atty. Jim Blair of Amarillo is handling the collection of the delinquent taxes and has collected more than $10,000 in back taxes since the July 1, 1974 figures were compiled.

Commissioners agreed Monday to send one of their members to Washington May 11 to join with representatives of other Texas and New Mexico cities and counties in an effort to convince individual House and Senate members of the need for designation of U.S. 60 from Amarillo to Las Cruces, N.M., as a part of the federal interstate system.

Barney Wiegand, chairman of the highway committee of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, met with commissioners and asked that a representative from Randall County accompany the group.

Wiegand outlined the history of efforts to have U.S. 60 designated a part of the interstate system and noted that the federal Department of Transportation has not recommended the highway be redesignated.

"We have to go political if we hope to do anything with it," he said. "We're in the best position we have been in respect to representatives from Texas and New Mexico being in places of power."

Wiegand indicated the trip to Washington by area officials may be a last-ditch effort to seek approval of the U.S. 60 route proposal.

Commissioners approve purchase of a 6000 gallon water tank trailer for use by the Canyon Fire Department. The cost will be about $4700, according to Commissioner Paul Lindsey.

Lindsey, principal author of the Randall County Fire Plan which calls for the county to purchase such a truck for the city's use, said about another $3000 would have the truck in working order. Bids will be sought on the additional equipment.

School plans told parents

Canyon school board members reiterated for Gene Howe area parents and teachers Monday night their plans to build a new elementary school and a new high school in the area and to issue about $5 million in bonds to pay for the construction.

All school board members were present in a question-and-answer session to which they had been invited by members of the Gene Howe PTA.

Based on current enrollment projections, Supt. Jerry Jacobs told the PTA members, plans call for construction of a high school on a site west of the Gene Howe School on Hollywood Road and for construction of an elementary school west of the Canyon Expressway in the same general vicinity.

Under a sample plan worked up the school administrative staff, students of junior high school age would continue to attend Canyon Junior High School until the population of that age-group rose to require construction of a junior high in the Gene Howe area, he said.

The plan, based purely on enrollment projection estimates, would have about 650 students in both Canyon High School and the north high school structure.

Gene Howe Elementary enrollment would be reduced from a current level of about 560 students to an enrollment level of about 480 and Rex Reeves Elementary School in Canyon would have an enrollment reduction from a projected 1100 to about 950 students.

School board members have instructed the Amarillo architectural firm of Cantrell and Co. to begin work on tentative plans for construction of both schools.

Jacobs said cost figures indicate the schools could cost about $5 million. With a $5 million bond issue, he said, the bonded indebtedness of the district would double.

A major roadblock in the way of finalizing plans both for a bond issue election and for construction of the schools, Jacobs said, is the current legislation pending in Austin concerning school district financing.

He said the board hopes to wait until the legislature has passed a school finance bill before definitely committing themselves to construction as now planned.

In response to a question from one parent, who asked board members how they will "convince people in Canyon to raise their taxes to build schools in Amarillo?", Board President Tom Keeling said: "Regardless of any annexation or detachment, Canyon has to have more schools."

Jacobs reported that he still

Senior citizens seeking funds from individuals

Canyon's senior citizens are going public on their appeal to raise $22,500 to purchase an old church building for renovation into a senior citizens center here.

Secretary Windy Miller said this week the senior citizens have until July 7 to raise the full amount, and already, he said, the association has raised $13,000.

Beginning this week, the association members will seek solicitations from individuals in the community. An advertisement in a future issue will include a return coupon for those interested in donating to the association.

The association currently plans to purchase the old First Christian Church building at 5th Avenue and 18th Street for use as a senior citizens center. The building is owned by the University Church of Christ.

"The senior citizens of Canyon have organized and mobilized their resources to the extent that with some local financial assistance a center serving many hundreds could be opened on a five-day-a-week basis, offering a wide range of programs and services," says a fact sheet distributed by the association.

Currently, there is no centralized program for senior citizens here. Members of the association have been meeting weekly in the community center.

The association envisions turning the old church building into a multi-purpose center for the 5000 senior citizens in the county.

Plans also include serving hot meals at noon during weekdays.

Local contributions as well as federal and state funding are expected to keep the center in operation.

Record wheat crop needs rain to grow

With what could be a record wheat crop in the ground, Randall County farmers are waiting for at least one more good rain to assure them that prospect.

While rains and snows have provided a plentiful supply of water since planting last fall, traditional May showers will not come too soon to freshen the green fields this spring.

County Agent John Brazzil said early signs of water deficiency are now showing up in the vast dryland wheat acreages in the county. Some wheat is changing color and spotting, indications of water shortage.

"The crop is making maximum demands for water," he said. "The grain will shortly be pollinating and the seed will be in the process of being filled and the wheat plant will use the greatest amount of water."

Frequent May showers this year could see the crop through, Brazzil said, but lack of moisture next month could cut into the

Grand jurors commend district attorney

Randall County grand jurors, in a letter to Dist. Judge Bryan Poff, commended this week the work of Dist. Atty. Randall Sherrod, who has been in office since Jan. 1.

The twelve jurors who had served through Tuesday issued a report commending Sherrod and local and area law enforcement officers. The report also expressed concern over "the growing threat of the narcotic problem in Randall County."

The report was issued Tuesday to Judge Poff, who sits on the bench of the 47th District Court.

"We would like to commend the Randall County District Attorney, Randall L. Sherrod, for the fine job he has done in presenting the cases to the Grand Jury," the report says. "Randy has come into a challenge as a new District Attorney, and we have seen him improve with each of our sessions. We just think he has done a superb job."

The report commends officers and deputies from the Randall County sheriff's office, the Metro Intelligence Unit, Amarillo and Canyon Police Departments and the Department of Public Safety "for the excellent job they have done in protecting the public interest, respecting the rights of the accused, obtaining information and presenting their cases."

Specifically singled out for commendation in the report are Det. Larry Pike and Lt. L.K. Baldwin of the Amarillo Police Department.

"We acknowledge the growing threat of the narcotic problem in Randall County," the report says, "and support the efforts of the Metro Intelligency Unit, the police departments and sheriff's department in working to solve this community situation.

"We support any attempts to deal with this critical problem by additional funds and personnel and educational programs in the public schools."

Grand Jury Foreman John O. Childs of Canyon said the grand jurors did not investigate the drug problem in the county, but were impressed by the magnitude of the problem when they realized the majority of the cases they heard involved drug abuse.

"Of the cases which appeared before the grand jury we found a number of them were drug-related or (the crimes were com-

A job with the postal service is good work if you can get it and it promises to be even better if the National Association of Letter Carriers terms are met in current negotiations.

I'm told by local postal officials that starting wage for carriers now is $5.25 an hour. To this the union wants to append a $1300 cost of living allowance which is to be considered basic wages (for overtime purposes, no doubt).

The average wage here for carriers with time in service is $7.50 an hour, I'm told.

And overtime! Oh, boy!!

The NALC is demanding that overtime be required only on a voluntary basis. What ever happened to "In spite of rain, sleet or snow or dark of night, the mail must go through?"

"There shall be a voluntary overtime list in the letter carrier craft and only those on the list may be assigned to overtime schedules," says NALC.

"Overtime pay shall be double time."

If this weren't enough, the union demands that anyone assigned to overtime be guaranteed seven hours, even if he is needed only 15 minutes.

If the overtime comes on a holiday, NALC is demanding that the worker be paid double time for working and straight time for the holiday. This comes to a whopping $22.50 an hour — a staggering $157.50 guarantee and quite possibly for only a few minutes work.

Would you like to hear about the fringe benefits?

You taxpayers are being asked to pay the entire cost of life insurance, health insurance, dental care and supplemental retirement and disability benefits.

Postal workers already get 9 holidays a year — celebrating such festive holy days as Columbus Day. They want more. I don't know exactly what they have in mind but they may be contemplating the setting aside of Arbor Day and possibly a pause in their labors to toast the Vestal Virgins.

They already get 13 days of sick leave — cumulative — and up to 26 days of vacation. This all adds up to a possible 48 days — something like 19 per cent of the possible work days in the year.

They still want you to pay for child care for them and provide them with a recreational fund. How much this is going to cost has not yet been nailed down.

Now if some of them happen to get on the juice or get hooked on drugs, NALC is asking you, the taxpayer, to dig up the funds to "rehabilitate" them. I'm glad NALC brought up the alcohol and drug question. It may help to explain why mail service is getting worse by the hour.

Oh yes, NALC is asking for additional time off for "bereavement leave." How near a relative has to be to constitute bereavement is not quite clear.

NALC wants to eliminate part-time workers from the postal payroll and reduce the work load of individual workers.

They want guaranteed job security with a contract stipulating that no workers will be laid off as a result of advancing technology.

You may think some of these demands are ridiculous but this one tops them all.

NALC is demanding "elimination of management's right to determine methods and means of operation" . . . of your post office.

This information didn't come off the top of my head, it's straight from the April 16 bulletin put out by the National Association of Letter Carriers (AFL-CIO).

I remember when the old time mail carrier was his patrons' best friend. He picked up emergency groceries for the rural housewife and on occasion took plow shears to the blacksmith shop for sharpening for the busy farmer.

He was rewarded with fresh meat in the mail box at hog killing, a cup of coffee and hot lightbread and butter at mid-morning along his route but most of all with a place of honor in his community.

Those were the days when for 3 cents you could mail a letter with the almost certain knowledge that it would arrive at its destination on time.

If the address was garbled, the Post Office did its best to deliver it anyway and took pride in doing it.

Try mailing one across town with a discrepancy, even a slight one, in the address today. No matter if it's the carrier's brother and he knows exactly where the addressee lives it will be fired back to you, delayed three days to a week.

One purpose could be served by the latest NALC demands. The people could be angered by the ever increasing arrogance and rise up and demand that something be done.

Operation of the post office could be put back into the hands of postal executives we have hired to run it. They may insist on reasonable wages and competent performance from those who draw them.

There may even come a time when a post office executive (postmaster) can take charge of his post office and fire on the spot incompetents and chronic trouble makers.

In the meantime, I'd advise you to make a copy of anything important you entrust to the U.S. mails.

Mr. and Mrs. E.E. Miller were week end houseguests of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brown, north of Amarillo where the two couples had "luck" fishing.

Rabies Clinic Here

New rabies information concerning treatment of the disease in man, domesticated pets and wildlife is being studied by Dr. J.L. Markham, D.V.M. in Canyon after receiving a recent report from Dr. William D. Nettles of Zoonosis Control of the Texas State Department of Health in Austin.

Curative treatments for the disease in man, once unthinkable, has now become a possibility with proper post-exposure treatments as well as pre-exposure immunizations for those persons facing repeated exposure to the disease such as laboratory staff workers, veterinarians, field naturalists, and those handling susceptible animals.

The best means of ridding an area of epidemic canine rabies is mass immunization combined with an elimination program for strays, according to Dr. Markham's recently received report.

Rabies virus is transmitted through the saliva of rabid wild and domesticated animals and communicability of the disease is demonstrated in dogs and cats from 3-5 days before recognizable signs of the disease are shown.

Since properly immunized animals have only a minimal chance for developing rabies and transmitting the virus, Dr. Markham and his staff will be conducting the annual "Rabies Clinic" Friday and Saturday, May 2-3, at his clinic from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. so that all dogs and cats may be inoculated at a reduced fee of $4 per animal.

"Last year," reports Dr. Markham, "we inoculated about 250 local pets and Canyon residents have always done a good job of breaking the rabies chain through the inoculation program.

"This spring we have already had two rabid skunk confirmations received from the State Health Department, and it could reach an epidemic proportion if dogs and cats are not inoculated to break the chain again this spring," he stated.

Dogs and cats to be treated at Markham Veterinary Clinic during the special drive should be brought either on a leash or boxed, according to Dr. Markham.

Mass vaccination of cattle could even become necessary depending on the prevalence of canine and wildlife rabies and the spread of the disease, concludes the state health department's report.

History Fair This Weekend At University

The West Texas State University History Department and the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society will sponsor a History Fair Friday and Saturday.

Projects by Canyon and Amarillo junior and senior high school students will be on display in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. during the fair and the week following.

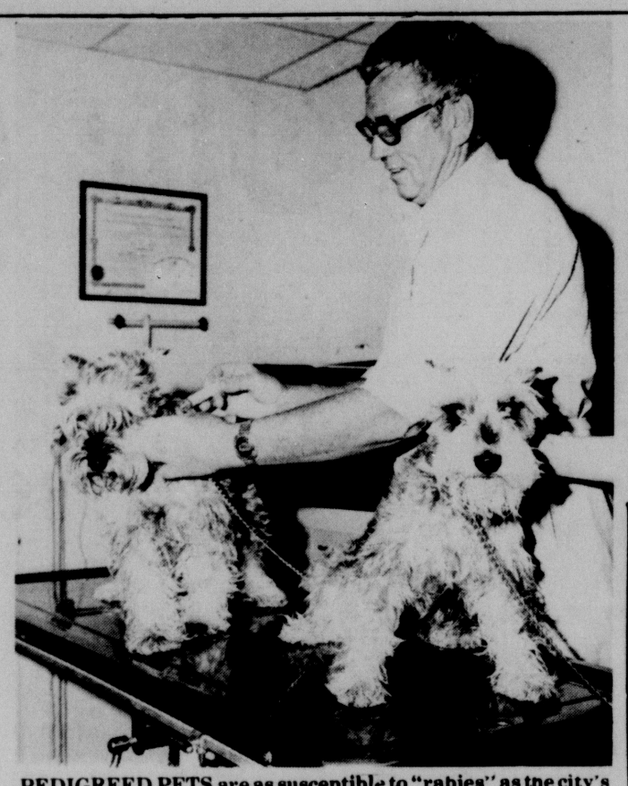
The first of its kind, the fair will feature projects concerning the history and development of the Texas Panhandle, according to Dr. Duane Guy, professor and head of the WTSU History Department.

Entries will be judged by three officials of the Historical Society in the categories of ranching, transportation, early town development, oil and gas industry and agriculture. Prizes will be awarded to the winners in each category.

"If it's a success, we hope to expand to other Panhandle areas," Dr. Guy said.

Individuals or classes may work on the projects, which will be limited to a three feet by five feet area.

Deadline for entries is April 26.



PEDIGREED PETS are as susceptible to "rabies" as the city's stray animals reports Dr. J.L. Markham, D.V.M., as plans are released for an annual animal inoculation drive to be held from 9 a.m.-6 p.m. on Friday and Saturday (May 2-3) at Markham Veterinary Clinic.

Pulitzer Winner Here

Pulitzer prize-winning producer, playwright and director Joshua Logan will be the artist-in-residence in theatre at West Texas State University today, Friday and Saturday.

Logan, best known as director of motion pictures, broadway hits and co-author of "South Pacific," "Mister Roberts" and "Fanny," will address advanced acting classes and lecture on "The Wonderful World of Theatre" in the Branding Iron Theatre at 8 p.m. on May 2. The evening lecture is open to the public, and there is no admission charge.

"Camelot" is the most recent of Josh Logan's fabulous screen ventures. He also directed the movie versions of "Picnic," "Bus Stop" starring Marilyn Monroe, "Sayonara" starring Marlon Brando and "Mister Roberts" starring Henry Fonda.

On May 1, Ray C. Johnson, president of the Friends of the Fine Arts, will host a reception for the friends and WTSU Speech-Theatre faculty and students at which Logan will be the guest of honor.

Logan will meet advanced acting classes on the campus of WTSU on May 2, and will be available during the day for conferences with students. That evening he will present a public lecture in the BIT.

On May 3, Logan will act as master of ceremonies for the Annual Awards Night of the Department of Speech and Theatre.

WT Officer Tops Class

Joel Richardson, a patrolman with the University Police Department, was awarded the valedictory plaque for a 98.4 average in a basic certification course for law enforcement officers to meet the standards set forth by the State of Texas.

Richardson's grade average was on a six week course including 240 hours with 29 other law enforcement students from throughout the Panhandle of Texas.

The plaque was presented at a banquet Thursday evening at Sutphen's in Amarillo where about 100 law enforcement officials from throughout the Panhandle were present to honor the graduating students. Charles Lutz, president of Amarillo College where the course was conducted, was present for the welcoming address and Bryan Wasson, police chief of Bowie, Texas, was the after-dinner humorist.

Wordie Burros, director of academic affairs for the Texas Commission of Law Enforcement Officials in Austin, was the keynote speaker with the topic "Turning Stumbling Blocks Into Stepping Stones."

Pat Fogleson, owner of Law Accessories and Weapons Company, Amarillo, presented Richardson with the valedictory plaque and presented his wife, Sharon, with a corsage.

Richardson, began work as a patrolman with the University Police Department last August.

OES Participates In State Project

Canyon City Chapter No. 105 of the Order of the Eastern Star will hold a sale of used merchandise Friday and Saturday (May 2-3) in an effort to raise funds for participation in a statewide project to purchase kidney machines for patients needing the machines in different areas of Texas.

The project is a statewide promotion proposed by the Worthy Grand Matron. Local OES members will be selling all types of used merchandise for the effort at 1617 4th Avenue, Canyon Poly Clean Building, and the sale is open to all residents.

TEXAS TALK

By Tom Lytle

WHEAT IS NUMBER ONE — the most important grain crop in the world. Wheat, is grown on over 300 million acres of land in more than 60 countries. Although even the top agricultural historians disagree on the exact origin of breadwheat, they usually concede cultivation of the crop has been under way for at least the past 5000 years. One reason for the world-wide appeal of the wheat grain is the versatility evidenced by the production of both spring and winter crops.

HARD RED WINTER — is a classification often used for much of the wheat produced on the Plains. When using this particular classification method the other best known types are; hard red summer, durum, red durum, soft red winter mixed and white.

Hoffmans Attend Anniversary

By DORIS McKEE

GUESS I WILL sit down with pencil in hand and get this show on the road. Hope everyone is enjoying this nice wead-ther.

JON, DIANA AND Christy Hoffman left Friday night and drove to Wichita, Kan., to attend the Golden Wedding Anniversary celebration of Diana's grandparents, Charles and Faye Diehl, on Sunday, April 27.

The anniversary celebration was held at the Broadway Christian Church and some 200 people attended it, most of them friends and relatives from the Kansas area.

The only other relative, beside the Hoffmans, attending from out of state was Charles' sister, Mildred Parkherst, of Los Angeles, Calif. This was a special occasion, as it was the first time they had seen each other since 1931. They had kept in contact by writing letters and exchanging pictures all these years. Mildred played the piano during the get-together, playing many songs she had played as a small girl.

She ended by playing the wedding march, especially for Charles and Faye. Diana said it was a very beautiful and heart warming celebration.

Charles and Faye lived here with Jon and Diana this past winter.

ON SUNDAY, APRIL 27th, there was a come and go reception and supper held in the Siesta recreation room honoring Mr. and Mrs. Otto Podzemny. It was their 62nd wedding anniversary. They are the grandparents of Mary Lopez. Mary and her husband Rick live at 117 LaFiesta.

There was a good turnout of some 70 to 80 people from all over the Panhandle area.

Sixty-two years, I think that's marvelous. Congratulations to you, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Podzemny!

HAVE A COUPLE of people we'd like to wish happy birthdays. First, Mickey Bays of 102 Siesta and Raylene Qualls of 226 LaFiesta. Seems they both claim April 28th, but they're not the same age.

Also want to say happy anniversary to Raylene and Paul Qualls, who had their 15th on April 23rd.

ROSCOE AND SHARON Shipley of 205 LaFiesta had a surprise visit a week ago Sunday when Roscoe's sister and family, Wanda, Lynnvel, Stacy and Rickey King of Plainview came for the day.

WAS HAPPY TO learn that Susie Singletary is out of the hospital and feeling better. She flew to Odessa for a few days the middle of last week.

SEEMS PECK, FAYE and Cheri Risner of 137 LaFiesta and Faye's folks, Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Dodson of Canyon, took a long week end and went to Marietta, Okla. for some fishing. Faye said they didn't catch a whole lot but sure did enjoy the outing.

The group also visited their son and his wife, James, Jr. and Lee, who live in Marietta.

BARNEY AND EUNICE Rinehart of 139 LaFiesta went to Albuquerque Friday. They took a couple of their grandsons, Laine and Mark McWilliams of Amarillo, with them. They all spent the week end visiting Tom and Belanie McWilliams, Jr.

Saturday morning all of them went to the zoo and that night Eunice, Belanie and Laine went to the club house and played Bingo until midnight. They came back home Sunday, but Eunice said they had a real good time.

PAUL, JR. AND Guy Qualls had Jeff and Ted Giesler of Canyon as guests the week end before this. This past week Guy went home with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dane Qualls of Friona, and spent the week. Raylene went to Friona Saturday to get Guy. He had really had a great time and sure hated to come home.

WE WOULD LIKE to mention our people who have been or are now in the hospital. Paul Qualls, Sr., was in Palo Duro Hospital several days last week. He is out now and back at work.

Faye Risner's mother, Mrs. C.A. Dodson of Canyon has been in Palo Duro Hospital several days. She is doing better.

On Monday afternoon Eunice Rinehart entered Palo Duro Hospital and had some surgery Tuesday morning.

TALKED TO MRS. Rex Holbert of 225 Loma Linda this week. She had had a very nice visit from her niece, Mrs. Jim Rogers of Enid, Okla., last week. She had spent a day and a night.

* * *

WE WERE VERY sorry to lose a couple of tenants and good friends this week. Dale, Pearl and Dusty West moved from 209 Loma Linda and will be missed greatly.

Also Kenneth and Doris Wallace of 153 Siesta left us.

We wish each of you the very best and hope everything will go well at your new residence.

THE BOY SCOUTS went on an all night campout to Lake Meredith Friday night, April 25th. Some of them slept in the open, while others stayed in the tents.

They saw a couple of rattle snakes and Paul was bitten by a tarapin, nothing serious. From all I could hear, all of them had a real good time.

Scouts attending were Marty Hoffman, Tod McKee, Dusty West, Scott Flemins, Ronnie McCarter, Shannon Jones, Tracy Walls, Paul Qualls and Patrick Shaffer.

There were also three Webeloes attending, Randy Jones, Curt Smith and Jimmy Scott.

The two leaders who sponsored this outing were Kenneth Shaffer and James Jones.

MY MOTHER, MRS. Ethel Weaver, of Lubbock, surprised me and my family this week end. It is always a pleasure to have her visit. She went home Monday evening, taking my daughter, DeAnn with her.

* * *

SATURDAY NIGHT TOD had Donnie Trammell spend the night. Also Marty Hoffman was our week end guest, while his parents were out of town.

WILL SIGN OFF for now, but will be back next week so keep on reading.

Thought for this week, "Always put your best foot forward, and perhaps your bad foot will follow."

Bazaar Is Planned

Heritage Woman's Club announced plans this week to conduct a fund raising bazaar on May 10 to feature handcrafted items of all types along with various baked goods in an effort to raise funds to help defray the $6,000 incurred by the Roy Forehand family in the recent purchase of a special equipment van for their son, Kelly.

Kelly Forehand was seriously injured last fall while playing football with his teammates of Canyon High School.

The bazaar has been set for May 10 at the Village Shoppe in Palo Duro Shopping Center from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Local residents with handcraft items or baked goods to add to the sale may make their contributions by contacting Mrs. Patricia Vise, 655-7448, or Mrs. Marion Marrs, 355-3748.

Going somewhere? Or been? The Canyon News wants to know about it — and so do its readers.

GRANDMOTHER'S DAY IS MAY 11th

This year we want to pay a special tribute to all grandmothers — young and old. Where would we be without these wonderful and special women in our lives? Surely they might tend to spoil the kids with an extra helping of love. And yes, they always want a new photograph of the family to show off to their neighbors. But, isn't it a wonderful feeling to know someone loves us so much?

A great many grandmothers come into our pharmacy and they are treated with the special care they deserve. And we are never too busy to look at that new family photograph.

"A GREAT MANY PEOPLE ENTRUST US with their prescriptions, health needs and other pharmacy products. We consider this trust a privilege and a duty. May we be your personal family pharmacy?"

Misty Lee Laseter, two-month-old granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Branstetter of Canyon, had to be coaxed to become the last photographic subject in the old Britain Studio Building at 1400 5th Ave. Doing the coaxing are Mrs. Branstetter and Carol Sands, of the studio. According to studio records, some 76,000 sittings have been made in the eighty-year-old building, which has been moved to make room for a parking lot for the new studio.

Make The Most Of Yourself

Individualism is the thing. The individual look in clothes and hairstyles, even attitudes, has replaced the "stamped-out-of-a-mold" look. Casual but neat is the motto . . . individualism the new creed.

And, your ROFFLER HAIR STYLIST agrees!

We believe hairstyles for men and women should be casual, yet individually suited to facial structure and hair texture. That's what being a ROFFLER stylist is all about . . . not a haircut, but a hairstyle.

STYLING DOES NOT ALWAYS MEAN CUTTING!
More often than not, styling means helping you select a style that best compliments you . . . long and narrow face, triangular shaped, oval, wide at the top but narrow chin . . . in other words, helping you make the most of yourself, not necessarily cutting off your hair.

But, ROFFLER stylists know that even casual styles change with the times. That's why they continually attend classes, read the latest information bulletins, and keep stocked with ROFFLER hair care products. Their education is a continuing thing.

You can feel confident that a ROFFLER hairstyle will give you the kind of look you want . . . casual, neat, and "in." Male or female, a ROFFLER hairstyle will help you make the most of yourself.

Call for an appointment.

THE HAPPY FFA Parent and Son Banquet was Tuesday evening of last week. Randy Perez, chapter chaplain led the Invocation. Terry McDonald, president, opened the chapter meeting and welcomed the guests. Richard SoRelle, vice president assisted Terry with the opening ceremony. Cathy Parker, FHA president, responded to the welcome in behalf of all the guests present.

Kyle Todd, secretary, called the roll. As he called each boy's name, the FFA member rose and introduced his parents.

Special guests were Superintendent and Mrs. Sam T. Bryan and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Moudy, principal, and Mrs. Lindal Nelson, wife of the agriculture instructor of Happy.

Tam Terry, Area I President and a WTSU student, was the speaker for the occasion. Terry is originally from White Deer. He spoke on the purposes and functions of FHA. He said, "Keep your heart young and your expectations high and never let your dreams die."

Shawn Walters was crowned FHA Sweetheart. She was presented a bouquet of red roses. Valerie Tipps was the runner-up. She, too, was recognized and presented a bouquet of red roses.

These FFA awards were presented: Lindal Nelson presented the Star Green Hand Award to Jim Bob Sims, the Star Chapter Farmer Award to Guy Walt Via, and the Leadership Award to Terry McDonald.

Tracy Cumby presented the Agricultural Mechanics Award to Michael Schoenenburger. Richard SoRelle presented the Beef Production Award to Kyle Todd. Kyle Todd presented the Swine Production Award to Jay McCarley. Lonnie Tackitt presented the Sheep Production Award to Richard SoRelle. Keith Dietz presented the Crop Production Award to Jim Bob Sims.

Mr. Nelson presented certificates of merit to the Dairy Judging Team: Leslie Weavers, Tim Parker and Stanley Dietz, and to the Livestock Judging Team: Jim Bob Sims, Jay McCarley and Tim Moudy. High Score Awards were presented to Tim Parker, Sherri Starkey, Neal Odom, and Odus Vanmeter.

Chapter Farmer pins were presented to all second year students and Green Hand pins to all first year farmers. The Green Hands then sang the FFA song and were accompanied by Mrs. Bryan on the piano. In six years, this is the first time that I've ever known how that song was supposed to sound.

J.T. Henry was installed as the 1975-76 president of the Happy FFA chapter. Vice president is Eddie Joe Pearson; secretary, Sherri Starkey; treasurer, Valerie Tipps; reporter, Keith Dietz; and sentinel, Larry McKelvey. The advisor is Lindal Nelson. These officers were installed and closed the chapter meeting.

TEXAS COWBELLES HAD an executive meeting in Amarillo Wednesday evening preceding the Thursday workshops. Thursday the first regional workshop in Texas was held in Amarillo. Willie Butler and I attended the workshops from the Happy CowBelles. I told them that each region should be able to set the time for their own workshops from now on. This is too busy a season for "these parts."

Wednesday, I plowed all morning, finished planting the above ground crops in the garden and attended the executive meeting that evening. When I left the motel to come home, I walked across the driveway to another section of the motel to get a Dr. Pepper. I had a quarter in my hand. When I reached the machine it said 30 cents.

Coward that I am, I almost went home thirsty, but I stepped out into the light and fished another nickle out of my purse... expecting all the while to be hit in the head. I purchased the cold drink, turned and only two doors from the corner of the building, the door opened and two gentlemen stepped out. Yes, they were. I swallowed my heart and said "hello" to Melba and Bob Howard from Haskell, Texas, and their guest, and future son-in-law. Small world!

Then I visited until the night was so short, it was scarcely worth being observed. But I made my obligations of the following morning and attended the Publicity workshop in the afternoon.

The Publicity workshop was surely the best of the day. Farm and Ranch Directors and editors of the area were the guest panel. Each spoke briefly and then opened the session to questions and answers. (That is almost dangerous among a bunch of CowBelles). Royce Boderford of KGNC radio opened the discussion. Next came Bill Coleman of KAMR-TV, Ron Slover of KGNC-TV, and Bedford Forrest of KVII-TV. Wayne Board of the Amarillo paper completed the panel.

Carroll Wilson, noted editor of The Canyon News was also invited to be a guest on the panel, but his plans to attend were altered at the last minute.

Texas CowBelles did send him their thanks for accepting their invitation and for his support of the beef industry and especially the Texas CowBelles. Each received a Beef Gift Certificate as appreciation from the Texas CowBelles.

SWISHER COUNTY 4-H Horse Club met Friday evening. They practiced reining, barrel racing and horse judging. Those who attended from Happy were Kevin and Kyle Odom, Neal Odom, Eddie Joe Pearson, Guy Walt and Becky Via, Angelique Henry, Valerie Tipps, and Sherri Starkey.

Sherri Starkey won third in the pole bending at Dalhart's Tri-State Rodeo Sunday afternoon. Several from Happy attended but the 60 mile-an-hour winds gave them a rough afternoon.

SWISHER COUNTY'S SENIOR Horse Judging Team won first at Lubbock on Saturday morning and will represent the District at State. Senior beef judging team took third place as did the senior rifle team. The junior horse judging team won third. Junior rifle team won first. And, the junior livestock judging team was in the top ten.

Clay Simons won third highest individual score in swine. Neal Odom is on that senior horse judging team. Congratulations, Neal!

ALL BUT TWO or three teams and individuals who entered the County Eliminations in Demonstrations last week will go to District with their demonstration. Kim McCaslin and Nancy Woods led the pledges in opening ceremonies at the demonstrations and Neal Odom gave the welcome. A large delegation from Happy attended.

RHONDA AND MIKE Fellers drove up to Happy and spent this week end with Gay and Laura Fellers while their dad was out of town. Rhonda plans to return to the University of Texas. Mike enjoys high school in Odessa. He fit right into their curriculum.

Mrs. Jack Helwig is in St. Anthony's Hospital.

Esta "MA" Walker is also in St. Anthony's. She was taken there on Sunday morning. Mrs. Walker is a former resident of Happy and Camma Lou Tackitt's mother. (You have to go back pretty far to remember Esta Goad Walker in Happy). She is a great lady and you can bet that the staff who attend her are in for a real treat.

Merle Faye Taylor is in a Plainview hospital.

Mildred Devin introduced the play, "The Loves of Minnie Martin" or "It Shouldn't Happen to a Dog." (The skit was one that parents of the seniors had put on at the Baptist Senior Fun Night when the Baptists entertained the seniors). Gene Howe News

Gene Howe Sees Busy Week

By KAROLYN FARMER

"BUSY" HAS CERTAINLY been the word for what's happening at Gene Howe this week.

FIRST OF ALL, a great big thanks to Mr. Jerry Jacobs and our Canyon School Board for coming to talk to us at our school this past Monday. Every member of the board was present and members of the Randall County Board also attended.

Unfortunately the number of parents who attended was not nearly what we had hoped for. "Concerned" is definitely an action word and usually requires us to put some "feet" to our feelings. Now, I'm not saying that just because you weren't at the meeting, that doesn't mean that you aren't a concerned Gene Howe parent — but very often others judge our concern by the numbers present rather than the words they hear.

Well, so much for my little "soap box" speech. It's not meant to chastise — just to remind you.

And this gives me another chance to say that truly to know our principal and our teachers is to love them. It looked like almost all the Gene Howe teachers were present at the meeting; some of them hadn't even gone home after school. "Lucky" is definitely the word for us to have such dedicated people teaching our children.

Mr. Jacobs spoke about the enrollment projections for all our Canyon schools for the next few years. If the projections which he has made, and which are based on our past growth history, are accurate, then it's very evident that all the Canyon schools are going to be overcrowded unless something is done soon.

He also talked about the financial obligations that would be incurred to provide for new schools. I'll have to admit that much of the talk about money, bond issues, etc. was a little over my head. But it was obvious to me that if our children are going to continue to receive the quality, individualized education that we're so proud of in our Canyon schools, more concern and sacrifice will be required of all of us.

Some of the questions that were asked by those present concerned the school bus situation. We were told that there will be two buses added for next year and that there will also be more supervision of the children on the buses. Also the board promised to look into the possibility of transportation for children who want to participate in after-school activities.

There was also discussion between the board and our parents about our need for another kindergarten teacher for this coming year.

Several of our parents and teachers also voiced their concern to the board about the lack of proper facilities in our portable buildings. We were told that there will be an effort made to better equip our two new portables for next year, as well as the two existing ones.

All of us really appreciated the cooperative spirit of Mr. Jacobs and all the Canyon School Board members. It's obvious that they are very interested in the welfare of all our Canyon school children.

We also enjoyed and appreciated their staying after the meeting broke up to visit with us on a more personal basis — which leads me to say that "Caring" is the word in the Canyon Independent School District.

ON THURSDAY, MAY 8th, Gene Howe will be having Pre-School Day for children who will be entering our kindergarten next fall. Everyone will meet in the school auditorium at 1:45.

The children will meet their teachers and will be taken on a tour of the school.

The parents will meet with Mrs. Deckard, our school nurse, Mrs. McGregor, our curriculum coordinator, Mr. Lawless and Mr. Jacobs, who will provide them with valuable information about our school.

This is an important meeting and all five-year-old children and their parents are strongly urged to attend.

AND ALONG THAT same line, it is very important for our school to have the names of all children in our area who are both four and five years old.

If you have, or know of someone who has children who will be five years old by September 1st or who will be four years old by September 1st, please, please call the school today. It's very necessary so that they will know how many kindergarten teachers will be needed.

DON'T MISS THE last PTA meeting of the year which will be held this next Monday, May 5th at 7:00. The program is going to be extra special — our precious 1st graders will be performing.

Also the new PTA officers for next year will be installed and there will be some special surprises that you won't want to miss. (And that's the truth!)

IN MRS. PAT Stevens' room the word is "Animals" — they're all over the place. Beautiful pictures of all kinds of animals line the walls. And outside in the hall the children have set up a zoo of animals all enclosed in their strawberry carton cages.

John Hicks made a frightening King Cobra; Don Spake made a kangaroo; and Linda Stone chose a zebra to put in the zoo. Stop by and look at them the next time you're at school — they're really cute.

Also on the wall in the hall are pictures of animals that the children made from material scraps.

Inside the room I found Shannon Baker and Rita Dell making animal paw imprints out of clay.

One bulletin board in the room has the words "Our School Day" and features drawings which the children made of a typical day's events.

Gay Gibson pictured Margie Phillips playing the piano while all the children sang. Leslie Childers and Sheri Golden both depicted their reading circle.

Kimberly Thompson drew a row of happy boys and girls eating in the cafeteria, complete with the "EXET" sign.

Tracy Ann Betty pictured all the children playing outside during recess. Lynn Vanlandingham drew the listening center.

The children were studying math when I visited them. And Mrs. Stevens certainly has a knack for helping her children enjoy the subject. The children worked the problems as Mrs. Stevens called them out and they really got excited when they discovered they had the right answer. Rebecca Boyce was one of the children who wrote a math problem correctly on the board, to the cheers of her fellow classmates.

Kellie Proctor is Citizen of the Week in Mrs. Stevens' second grade room.

MR. AND MRS. Luther Lawless, Von Dean McGregor and Carol Hollingsworth all went to St. Louis this past week to observe an Early Childhood Program in the schools there.

Mr. Lawless told us of the program they have set up called "Saturday School" for 4 year old children. They come to school on Saturday morning and learn many of the awareness type things that will prepare them for kindergarten. The teachers also visit in the homes of the children during the week.

The program in St. Louis is Federally funded and Mr. Lawless has high hopes of our being able to implement something similar at Gene Howe in the future.

GENE HOWE HAS several new students as of this past week. Jerry Bill Jaques, Victor Hamilton and Donna Dickson are now in Carol Hollingsworth's kindergarten classes.

Paul Brohlin is a new 4th grader in Mrs. McGill's room. He is the son of Billie and Beverly Brohlin and has a younger sister named Heather.

The Brohlins have recently moved from Lubbock and are staying with Paul's grandparents, Paul and Viola Brohlin, until their house in Amarillo is ready.

Jimmy and Ann Tyler and family have moved back to Amarillo from San Clemente, Calif. after several years' absence. Their son Jerrell is a 5th grader in Mrs. Lasell's room and Raymond is in Mr. Dowell's 6th grade room. Mr. Tyler is an electrician and is with Local 602.

THE GENE HOWE PTA Board met at the school last Monday afternoon to wind up all old business and make plans for the exciting end of school activities ahead.

Present were members of both the "old" and "new" boards: Ernestine Harp, Sarah Edwards, Gay Cochran, Raydell Palmer, Troyce Mulherin, Sandra Wait, Linda Ford, Phyllis Hicks, Karolyn Farmer and Luther Lawless.

PROUD MAMA PHYLLIS Hicks just couldn't resist showing the other PTA Board members (before the meeting, of course), her daughter Sheila's newly won medals.

Sheila, as you have been reading lately, is quite an accomplished swimmer. This past week end the whole Hicks family went to Lubbock where Sheila competed in the Junior Olympic Swim Meet. She won a silver medal for 2nd place in the 200 Individual Medley, a bronze medal for placing 3rd in the 100 breast stroke, and another ribbon in the competition.

FOR FREE ENTERTAINMENT this week end, be sure and go down to Canyon for the American Legion Swim Meet. The meet will be held in the West Texas 50 meter pool Friday evening starting at 6:00 and on Saturday and Sunday starting at 9:00.

Not only will you be able to see Sheila Hicks and many other super swimmers competing, but you can enjoy a light lunch at the snack bar and buy a shirt for a good cause.

PAM GILMORE, THE daughter of Alan and Sandra Gilmore, has been in Northwest Texas Hospital this past week for a difficult series of tests, etc.

Pam is in Mrs. Mills' 3rd grade room and hopes to return to school soon.

"FIELD TRIPS" IS the exciting word for our 4th, 5th and 6th graders. Last Thursday, April 17th, the 4th graders spent the day visiting the fire station, police station, water department, museum and the park in Canyon.

This Friday, May 2nd, the 5th graders are looking forward to a fun day at Palo Duro Canyon. On Thursday, May 9th, the 6th graders will go to the Nichols Plant and Thompson Park in Amarillo.

THE DATE FOR the school track meet for grades 4, 5 and 6 has been tentatively set for May 6th at 1:30 in the afternoon. Plan to come on out and watch our boys and girls compete in the many track events.

* * *

OUR DEEPEST SYMPATHY is extended to Jim and Kay Riley and family. Jim's mother passed away last Saturday and the funeral was held April 29th in Hereford.

MARY JO SMITH, one of our 5th grade teachers, is in charge of taking reservations for the Canyon Classroom Teachers Banquet to be held Tuesday, May 6th at Canyon Jr. High.

THE 3RD AND 4th grade boys' track team ran last Saturday in the annual Pancake Day Track Meet at the Tri-State Fairgrounds. Coach Bill Hamilton says his boys ran well against some stiff competition and won 3 seconds and 1 third place.

IF YOU'RE BY the school this week, be sure to look at the posters hanging in the main hall that were done by our 6th graders. They deal with drug abuse and show some very heavy thinking on the kids' part.

One of them that caught my eye says "Drug Abuser's Cemetery, In memory of those who died in vein." Another one pictures a cowboy and a hippie and says, "Would you rather be a roper or a doper?"

GAY COCHRAN, OUR reading teacher at Gene Howe, attended a PESO sponsored workshop last Friday. She really gained a lot of new information and enjoyed the speaker, Dr. Lamb from Southwestern State in Weatherford, Okla.

* * *

NOW, JUST ONE more time (for now, anyway): The words for today are "Please Call Me." I really would like to hear from you this week.

Remember Mother's Day!

Give her the special attention she deserves on her day, Sunday, May 11. She'll love a beautiful card and gift from our complete Hallmark selection.

WT Administration Eyeing Fall Budget

With about three weeks remaining in spring semester, West Texas State University administrators are busy preparing tentative budget figures for next fall and report that they've received a friendly reception in appropriation deliberations in Austin.

Dr. Lloyd I. Watkins, university president, said he has "not yet seen any evidence at this time to warrant faculty cuts."

A formalizing of the tentative budget figures cannot come until Texas legislators pass an appropriations bill in Austin. Watkins said the administration won't know for sure about possible faculty lay-offs until the final appropriations bill is passed and signed.

He said the Legislative Budget Board recommendations for the university have remained fairly well intact throughout the committee hearings in both House and Senate and, in fact, the Senate Finance Committee has added funds for acquisition of library books.

"It goes without saying we'll try to keep our faculty," Watkins said, noting that in the zero-based budget request given the LBB the university listed faculty salaries as its highest priority.

Watkins said it appears enrollment at the university has stabilized.

"One thing we brought out when we had our hearings (in the legislature) was that we were told two years ago to get our faculty-student ratio in order and we have," he said.

Watkins said the committee hearings "have been very friendly."

He said the administration is now working with LBB suggested a $10,621,000 appropriation for the university during 1975-76 and a $10,342,919 appropriation for 1976-77.

Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum Director James Hanson had some bad moments during recent legislative sessions, as he learned of House committee action which could have left the museum unfunded for the next biennium.

The LBB suggested an appropriation of about $335,000 for the museum operation next year, but a House appropriations sub committee voted to recommend no funding for any state supported museum during the biennium.

Hanson said from what he could learn of the proceedings in Austin, the subcommittee decided not to fund the state museums — about 10 in all — preferring, rather, to have the museums placed under some other committee for consideration.

But, Hanson said, the full appropriations committee ignored the subcommittee suggestion and is still working with the LBB figures for next year and the year after.

production on dryland wheat this year.

Brazzil said the wheat needs the moisture badly within the next three weeks.

"We will make some wheat even on dryland but the total amount of the crop is yet to be determined," Brazzil said. The bulk of the county wheat acreage is on dryland.

Already wheat farmers with irrigation have begun heavy watering.

While water may be a potential problem this spring, Brazzil said the wheat crop is having no serious problems with insects or disease.

type airports rather than large airports for major carriers.

He said general aviation airports for cities like Canyon should be municipally owned "so it's there when you need it."

He said general aviation aircraft now have access to Canyon only through the Amarillo municipal airport or through Tradewinds Airport.

Canyon's airport has been an off-and-on operation for a number of years and is currently not open.

McCausland said federal grant money is available for development of general aviation airports.

"If Canyon wanted to develop an airport you could do it for 12½ cents on the dollar right now," he said.

Tuesday's meeting will be at 2 p.m. at the Chamber of Commerce conference room in the Amarillo Building in Amarillo.

A year ago, the museum acquired the old library from the university for use as an annex and currently the structure houses the hall of transportation and communication.

Hanson said the addition of the connecting structure would allow for tighter security in both the old museum building and the annex.

Currently, museum visitors who want to see the exhibits in both buildings must walk outside from one building to the other.

Early plans for a connector called for a basement-level connecting passage only.

vision carrying out a full program once the center is purchased and renovated, including recreation programs, information and referral programs, the hot meal program, and various educational programs.

Current plans call for the initial three-month period to be spent raising the needed money to purchase the building. Within six months, the association expects to renovate the basement area of the church for games, arts and crafts. The basement should be finished within a year, according to the current timetable.

The association directors anticipate a time span of between two and five years to complete both floors of the church for full use by the center.

The Canyon association, which was formed last fall and chartered in October, has more than 200 members.

Varsity-Alumni Game Is Saturday

There is no denying that West Texas State owns a great football tradition, and the last person to discount that fact this week will be Buff Head Coach Gene Mayfield.

The 1975 edition of the Maroon ends its spring drills Saturday night in Kimbrough Memorial Stadium with the first varsity-alumni game in five years, and offensive backfield coach Jim Dawson reflects the feelings of the staff when he says, "With all their size and experience, the alumni team should really give us a battle."

Already announced for the team are 11 players from the 1974 WT squad that went 6-5, and a trio of greats from the WT's last bowl team in 1967. Off that team which clubbed San Fernando Valley State 35-13 in the Junior Rose Bowl are Fullback Albie "OO" Owens, quarterback Roy Winters, and mammoth offensive tackle A.Z. Drones. Announcements of more former Buff greats to play in the benefit game will be made during the week.

The game itself will benefit the fund for Friona football coach Bob Owens. Owens recently suffered a heart attack, and his wife is presently undergoing treatment for cancer.

Tickets are priced at $2 for adults and $1 for students, and are available at the WTSU athletic ticket office in Canyon.

As for the varsity Buffs themselves, Mayfield says his team is ready for the outside competition. "A full game should be good for us," he said early this week. "It will be good for us to go against a defense that we don't know what will do."

At this point, Mayfield figures he'll start about the same lineup that has been first team all spring. "It should be pretty much what it has been. We might have to move some linemen around for depth, and there might be a change or two on defense.

Two of the brighter spots in last Friday's controlled scrimmage in Kimbrough Stadium were halfbacks Anthony Dogan and Richard Riggins. The two sophomores-to-be didn't score, but Dogan carried nine times for 70 yards, and Riggins added 54 more yards on 11 totes.

Riggins also had a hand in the largest gain of the night, a 37-yard bomb from quarterback Tully Blanchard that set up the first touchdown of the evening. Blanchard ended the night with five completions in 10 attempts for 68 yards and one touchdown.

The man who drew as many raves as any other player, however, was walk-on Jack Mullins, a soph-to-be from Dalhart. Mullins caught two passes while playing at split end for the first time.

"Isn't he something," Mayfield asked after the practice. "His first catch (a four-yard gain from Tracy Qualls) was just super. He didn't catch that many, but he really blocked well."

Game time Saturday night is 7:30.

Beltz In Swim Meet

Canyon's only entrant in the West Texas Junior Olympic swimming meet on April 25 at Lubbock came home with five gold medals and a silver medal earned in the 11-12 age events.

Joe Beltz, 12, a sixth grade student at Rex Reeves Elementary School, swam for the Maverick Acuatic Club and placed second in the 50-yard freestyle with 1:04.4 time, first in the 200-yard freestyle with a 2:16.4 time and first in the 100-yard backstroke with a 1:14.4 time.

Beltz also swam with the first place team in the 400-yard medley and 400-yard freestyle relays. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beltz of Canyon.

Also swimming in the meet for the Amarillo Aquatic Club in the 11-12 girls competition was Sheila Hicks, a student at Gene Howe Elementary School. She placed second in the 200-yard I.M. with a 2:53.5 time; third in the 100-yard breaststroke with 1:28.3 time and fifth in the 100-yard freestyle events with 1:13.2 time. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Hicks on Chapman Road.

WT Tennis Clinic Set

Enrollment is underway for the second annual West Texas Tennis Clinic for Adults, scheduled for May 10-11 on the campus of West Texas State University.

David Kent, WTSU tennis coach, and Amarillo stockbroker Phil Nichol will again be directors for the clinic designed to strengthen each player's individual game.

"Our clinic is designed to take care of your tennis needs whether you are a beginner, an intermediate, or an advanced player," Kent said. "This is accomplished by a proven and concentrated system of individual instruction. Playing better is fun."

Kent and Nichol will be assisted by some of the leading collegiate players and coaches in the southwest, including members of Kent's defending Missouri Valley conference champions at WTSU.

During free hours, players may also visit points of interest near the West Texas State campus, including Palo Duro Canyon and the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

"Our desire is for you to enjoy the clinic, and for it to be a real learning experience," Kent added.

Cost for the two-day clinic will be $30. Applications may be sent to Kent, Box 413, WT Station, Canyon, Texas 79016.

Taylor Named WT MVP

Howard Taylor, the 6-2 guard who led West Texas State in scoring in 12 of the Buffs' 26 games, was named the team's Most Valuable Player during the second annual Cager Club Basketball Banquet recently at the Quality Inn.

Taylor, a senior from Como, Miss., ended the 1974-75 season as WTSU's 16th leading career scorer with a total of 829 points. He led the 74-75 edition of the team with a 16.7 average, including a high game of 31 points at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

Also during the banquet, Reggie Ramey and Dallas Smith were announced as co-captains for the 1975-76 team. Ramey will be a senior from Philadelphia, while Smith will be a senior from Des Moines, Ia.

Ramey currently stands as the second leading scorer in WT annals with a total of 1,199 over three seasons of competition. He trailed Taylor in the scoring column last year with a 14.9 average, but the 6-8 forward led the team in rebounding with an average of 7.2 per game.

Smith moved into the starting lineup at the start of the Missouri Valley Conference schedule, and responded by averaging 9.4 points and 7.0 rebounds during league play. The 6-10 center had a team-high 16 rebounds against St. Louis.

WTSU Golfers Host Tech

West Texas State's golf team returns from a week of rest Friday when the Buffs host Texas Tech in a dual golf match at the Amarillo Country Club.

The match is the return competition of a dual match played in Lubbock earlier this month. Tech won that one 14-4 at Hillcrest Country Club.

WT Coach Vern Farquhar hopes the Buffs' knowledge of the ACC course will help his team make a better showing against the Raiders. "Hopefully we'll have better luck with them at the country club because we've played that course and some of them hadn't," he pointed out.

"We hadn't played that course in Lubbock before that first match, and while I'm sure it wasn't the main reason we lost, I think it might have had an affect on it."

Spearman senior Junior Salinas earned the bulk of WT points in the first encounter with a 2½-½ win over his Tech opponent. Allen Johnson scored another point in a losing match, and Tommy Smith earned the other half point. The scoring is one point for each nine holes, and one point for the total round.

The Buffs are currently playing qualifying rounds for the Friday match. Tuesday, the team played at Ross Rogers, Wednesday at Tascosa Country Club, and Thursday at its home course in Canyon, Hunsley Hills.

Friday's dual with Tech is the final competition for the Buffs until the Missouri Valley Conference meet May 22-24 at Wichita State.

Buff Netters To Tourney

Weekly improvement is important for any tennis team, but it has reached the critical stage for West Texas State's young net outfit.

Coach David Kent takes his Buffs to the Oral Roberts University Invitational this week end in Tulsa, and he frankly states, "We need to play better tennis than we have in the past to be a threat."

The Buffs stand 22-7 in match play this spring, but the losses have a familiar ring. Kent's team has lost twice to Oklahoma State, Oklahoma, and New Mexico. The seventh loss was to Houston.

Scott Talleys Have Baby Boy

The Scott Talleys of 1618 Hacienda, Amarillo announce the April 26 birth of a son, Paul Douglas, who was born at Palo Duro Hospital in Canyon weighing 7 pounds, 11 ounces and measuring 20 inches at birth.

The Talleys have a daughter, Stephanie Renee, 3½ years, and the father is the youth minister for Central Church of Christ in Amarillo.

Grandparents are Mrs. Gennie Bruton of Dimmitt and Mr. and Mrs. B.C. Talley of Lubbock.

Art Exhibit Is On Display

An exhibit of paintings of the 19th century French school is scheduled to be on display in the Panhandle Plains Memorial Museum through May 5, according to Mrs. Monica Heiman, assistant professor of French at West Texas State University. The exhibit has been prepared by Vivian A. Davis in connection with her study of French language and culture.

"There is an interesting series of connections and parallels between the Japanese prints and members of the French school such as Monet, Manet, Gaugain, Cezanne and Van Gogh," Mrs. Heiman noted, adding "The exhibit facilitates comparison of both subject treatment and technique."

JuCo Standout Signs To Play For Ekker

Melvin Jones, who led Henderson County Junior College to the Region XIV finals this year, will be playing his college basketball at West Texas State University next year.

Jones, whose brother Ray played for Texas Christian University last year, signed a national letter of intent with the Missouri Valley Conference Buffaloes Thursday evening. His signing brings to five the total of players who have agreed to national letters with WT Head Coach Ron Ekker this spring.

The 6-4 Jones, who Ekker said would swing between forward and guard for the Buffs, averaged 20.4 points and 12.4 rebounds for Coach Leon Spencer's 25-10 team at Henderson County in Athens. As a freshman, his averages were 12.4 points and 11.7 rebounds.

"We're just happy to get a player of Melvin's caliber," Ekker noted. "He was third team All-American last year, an outstanding player on an outstanding team at Henderson County.

"He played two years under a fine coach, and he brings with him the good mechanics of defense and offense that we like. He has tremendous quickness and tremendous jumping ability. He comes to us as a guard, but he'll play a lot of forward because of his jumping ability," Ekker added.

In addition to his All-American honors, Jones was the most valuable player in the Eastern Junior College Athletic Conference's North Zone tournament, and runner-up to MVP honors in the EJCAC and Region XIV.

Hairstylist At Dallas

Bob Smith, Roffler hairstylist and owner of University Barber Shop in Canyon, was in Dallas recently to attend a five-state Roffler Styling Seminar with Erhard Plaschke and the Roffler All-Star Demonstration Team conducting the sessions.

CHS Thinclads Qualify

Two Canyon High School tracksters qualified last week end for the state boy's track meet to be held in Austin May 8-10.

Second place finishes in the regional meet conducted at Odessa enabled Garre LaGrone and Adrian Foil to qualify for the upcoming meet in Austin.

LaGrone, a district pole vault winner, vaulted 13-6 in the regional meet to win second place and the right to compete in the state meet.

Foil took second in the regional broad jump, thus earning an entry in the state competition. Facing his third and last jump, Foil was in third place which would not qualify for the state meet. The CHS senior didn't succumb to the pressure and made a leap of 21-6, a mark that pushed him into second place and a spot in the state meet.

Other CHS entries in the regional meet were Russell Killingsworth, hurdles; Kevin Raef, 220-yard dash and relay team; Ron Mills, 440-yard dash and relay team; Lyndon Brazile, 100-yard dash and relay team; Craig Johnson, relay team; and Phillip Halsted, relay team.

In high school, he was his team's most valuable player for Booker T. Washington High in Memphis, Tenn., for Coach Bill Little.

Jones is the third junior college player committed to WTSU. Already signed are Milt Henderson, a 6-2 guard from Bakersfield, Calif., and Brad Schreck, a 6-6 forward from Independence, Kans.

Larry Cunningham, a 6-9 forward from St. Louis, and Mike McBride, a 6-3 guard from Wichita, are the two high school players who have announced for WT.

The world has entered a new stage of history, the age of the maturity of man and the beginning of world awareness. The outlines for successfully establishing the unity and harmony required for this new society are found in the writings of the
